

BUY PRODUCTS AND SERVICES FROM SUPPLIERS YOU CAN TRUST

BDIA Member companies Suppliers you can trust

The British Dental Industry Association (BDIA) is the UK's dental industry trade body. Since 1923 its members have been working closely with the dental profession to provide the quality, innovative and dependable equipment and services that you need day in day out.

As BDIA members are bound by a comprehensive professional Code of Practice*, bespoke training and a common vision, choosing to do business with them means you can have confidence that everything you buy is of guaranteed quality and provenance - you are choosing a supplier that you can trust.

SO, WHEN YOU THINK SUPPLIER THINK BDIA MEMBER

To find BDIA member dental suppliers visit www.bdia.org.uk/member-directory

BDIA member companies range from SME's to large international businesses who manufacture and supply quality products, services and technologies to the dental profession - from aspirators to X-rays and everything in between.

*The BDIA Code of Practice and details of the BDIA Certificate, "Introduction to Dentistry" are all available on the BDIA website - www.bdia.org.uk.
